The Meeting Center

High on a hill in historic Bucks County, PA, the Meeting Center offers a tranquil and relaxed atmosphere, ideal for corporate meetings, training sessions, and small group events. The Meeting Center is an attractive option for single and multiple day events and formal or informal sessions.

Facilities

With more than 1,000 square feet of meeting space we can accommodate groups up to 22. There is one large meeting room and three additional meeting rooms for brainstorming and small group activities.

Basic audio-visual equipment, teleconferencing, and flip charts are all available.

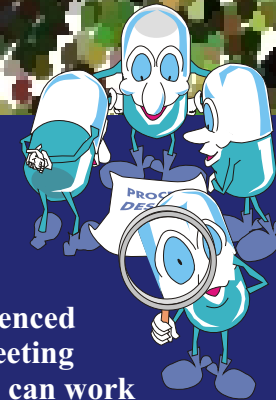

Food The Meeting Center is close to both casual restaurants and formal dining or we can arrange to have your session catered.

Added Value

We have experienced training and meeting facilitators who can work with you. With on-site training and meeting facilitator professionals, we can anticipate and quickly solve any issues that may arise before or during your event.

Directions

From I-95 in PA or NJ take the exit to New Hope. Go north about 4 miles to the second traffic light. Turn left at the light and take an immediate right up our driveway.
